Critchlow & Williams

Associate Attorney, October 1977 to January 1980, Richland, WA. I specialized in trial work, primarily family law, personal injury, and criminal defense.

VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America)

Visalia, California, 1972 to 1973. Assigned to non-profit organization, Self-Help Enterprises, to help organize and build low-cost housing for migrant farm workers.

TRIAL and APPELLATE EXPERIENCE

My trial experience includes cases in the District and Superior Courts of Washington State and the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Washington. I have handled appeals, criminal and civil, in the Court of Appeals and Supreme Court of Washington, the Supreme Court of Idaho and the United States Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit. I was co-counsel on behalf of Respondent in Edwards v. Balisok, a case argued to the United States Supreme Court in November 1996. I also have extensive experience in representing clients in administrative hearings, settlement conferences, and mediations.

ADDITIONAL TEACHING AND PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Since March, 2022, I have worked part-time as a mediator for the Fulcrum Institute Dispute Resolution Clinic in Spokane, Washington. My work primarily involves efforts to resolve Landlord-Tenant disputes that could lead to evictions. I also mediate family law disputes.
